

UU WOMEN'S CONNECTION

SPRING 2007 CONFERENCE

Connections: The 7th Principle in Action June 8 - 10, 2007

Keynote Speaker: Reverend Ruth Gnagey, Ph. D.

After a thirty-year career in outdoor and environmental education, Rev. Dr. Ruth Gnagey retired and set her sights on the Unitarian Universalist ministry. She graduated at age sixty-six from Meadville Lombard Theological School and began an active ministry. She is now the affiliated minister at the Unitarian Universalist Church of Bloomington Normal. She and her husband are winter ministers at the Hidalgo County Unitarian Universalist Fellowship and the All Souls Unitarian Universalist Church of Brownsville - both in Texas.

Please join other women from the Central Midwest District for a wonderful opportunity to connect

- * Intergenerationally
- * Spiritually
- * Interpersonally
- * With the environment

Pilgrim Park Camp and Conference Center,
Nestled in the woods of Central Illinois
(Not far from Starved Rock State Park).

Workshop presenters include representatives from the Bloomington-Normal Peace & Justice Kids: Ariana Miller and Rachel Hile-Broad

Hosted by the women of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Bloomington-Normal.

For more information:

Mary Lou Steadman (309) 661-8762, dambaw6@hotmail.com,
Brenda Wernick (309) 829-9311, b_wernick@yahoo.com, or Cheryl Springwood,
UU Women's Connection Liaison (309) 454-9453, cspringwood@yahoo.com

Visit www.uuwomensconnection.org for updates.